SPREADING THE COLORS OF MUSIC

By

Shri. Arun Ramamurthy

Accompanied By Shri. Suresh Ramchandran on the Mridangam

Arun Ramamurthy is an exciting violinist who has made his mark in Indian Classical music in US. He had his initial training in Western classical music which gave him his precise bowing and fingering techniques. In 1991, Arun began studying Carnatic music from the esteemed violinist Sri Anantha Krishnan, and continues to do so. In the last 8 years, Arun has been getting advanced training from the great violinists, Sri Mysore Nagaraj & Dr. Mysore Manjunath. In 2003, Arun spent 8 months with his gurus Nagaraj & Manjunath and received extensive training in the good old gurukula fashion. Since then, Arun has been performing all over the U.S. for both visiting artists from India as well and local talents.

Suresh Ramchandran is a disciple of Sri. Thiruvai-yaru V. Gurumurthy, a student of the mridangam maestro Late Sri.Palani Subramaniam Pillia. As a graded artist of the All India Radio, Ramchandran has been featured in many radio and television programs in India. He has had the privilege of performing with many leading musicians including T. N. Seshagopalan, Ravi Kiran, Prof. T. R. Subramaniam and Tanjore Kalyanaraman.
