Raag-Rang Presents
A Magical Afternoon of Hindustani Classical Instrumental Music

SPREADING THE COLORS OF MUSIC

Featuring Sarod Maestro
Shree. Anirban Dasgupta
Accompanied By Dr. Amod Dandawate on Tabla

Anirban Dasgupta is the son and disciple of the renowned Sarod maestro of Sri Buddhadeb Dasgupta. As his son, Anirban grew and stepped in the very best ambience of Hindusthani Classical Instrumental Music which has helped his innate talent to mature into a musical personality and judgment well ahead of his age. He is well known today for his delicate mastery of Sarod and great facility in its techniques and authentic repertoire. He stood in the first in the All India radio competition in 1987 and has performed widely in India as well as abroad. He was fortunate to receive a personal note of appreciation from Sarod legend Ustad Ali Akbar Khan. Anirban has also achieved distinction through his expositions and articles on his father's pioneering work on derivation of Classical Instrumental Composition from Rabindra Sangeet.

The Concert will start with:
A vocal presentation by young artist Chinmay Paranjape.

Directions

From Route 1 (North or South): Take the Washington Road exit into Princeton. At the fourth light turn left at the light onto Nassau St. and go three lights to the intersection of Nassau and Rt. 206. Turn right onto Rt. 206 North. At the third light take a left onto Cherry Hill Rd. The Unitarian Universalist Congregation will be immediately on the left.

From the North: Take Route 206 south towards Princeton. Travel 3.8 miles past the intersection of routes 518 and 206 to the light at Cherry Hill Road (which is the fourth light). Turn right onto Cherry Hill Road. The Unitarian Universalist Congregation is immediately on the left.

Directions from South Jersey via I-295: Take Rte. I-295 North until it turns into I-95 South (by Rte. 1 New Brunswick exit). Continue on I-95 South (also still I-295 North!) for 2 exits (~2 miles). Take Exit 7B onto Rte. 206 North. Continue for ~6 miles, to a traffic light where Rte. 206 continues to the left. (straight ahead turns into Nassau St. / Rte 27). Follow Rte. 206 North, then make left at 3rd light (~1 mile) onto Cherry Hill Rd. Unitarian Universalist Congregation is immediately on left.
